

Diabetes

What is diabetes? It's a disease that renders the ability of your body to use insulin properly. This leads to high blood glucose levels that can have both short- and long-term consequences.

What is a dietitian who specialises in diabetes? Accredited nutrition experts who can educate and advise diabetic patients on how to eat better to control their blood glucose levels.

