- 11.2 Membership shall be suspended if fees due are not paid immediately upon annual renewal of membership. Reinstatement of such members is made on payment of arrear membership fees for the year of default, or any other terms, conditions or concessions that the Council at its discretion may wish to make.
- 11.3 PRO RATA RATES. Pro rata rates (50% of annual fee) only apply to new members who join in the second half of the membership year.

11.4 Appeal against the loss of benefits or termination of membership may be submitted electronically to the Administrative Secretary of the Society. Such appeals will be considered by the Council. The decision of the Council will be communicated within 30 days from the date of submission.

11.5 No member may hold office unless in good standing.

12 AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION

12.1 The Constitution should preferably be amended at an AGM or at an Extraordinary General Meeting. However, in extraordinary circumstances the Council can amend the Constitution and request full members of the Society to approve the amendments electronically. Comments should be submitted within 30 days of the first notification.

12.2 If no comments are received within the 30 days, the amendments will be accepted.

12.3 Any alteration to the Constitution shall only be adopted if it receives a two-thirds majority of the votes cast.

12.4 If any comments are received, the comments will be considered by the council and if comments are in conflict with the proposed amendments, it will be put to a vote electronically by all full members of the Society. The consensus vote will be accepted.

13 FINANCIAL

13.1 Any financial matter shall be approved by a two-thirds majority of the members present at a Council or General Meeting.

13.2 An audited statement of the Society's income shall be provided at each AGM.

13.3 Membership fees must be used for the ordinary running costs of the Society.

13.4 All financial transactions will be made in accordance with an approved annual budget. Out of budget transactions will be approved by the treasurer and the president.

13.5 All additional funding obtained through grants or sponsorship packages, will be indicated as donations and sponsorships.

13.6 Financial transaction will be conducted by means of a banking account.

13.7 The financial year of the Society will be aligned with the calendar year and will therefore end on 31 December of each year.

- 13.8 Members or Council members of the Society will not become liable for any of the obligations or liabilities of the Society solely by virtue of their status as members or Council Members of the Society.
- 13.9 Council members are not personally liable for any loss suffered by any person as a result of an act or omission which occurs in good faith while the council members are performing functions for or on behalf of the society.
- 13.10 Investments on behalf of the Society can be made as long as the Executive committee has consulted the financial officers and approved such an investment.

14 ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION

Electronic communication will be regarded as an accepted method of relaying information.

15 DISSOLUTION

The Society may be dissolved by a two thirds majority of the active members and its assets disposed of as determined in Section 30B of the Tax Act.

16 COMPLIANCE

The following limitations imposed by Section 30B of the Income Tax Act are recorded:

- a) the entity must have a committee, board of management or similar governing body consisting of at least three persons, who are not connected persons in relation to each other, to accept the fiduciary responsibility of that entity;
- b) no single person may directly or indirectly control the decision-making powers relating to that entity;
- c) the entity may not directly or indirectly distribute any of its funds or assets to any person other than in the course of furthering its objectives;
- d) the entity is required to utilise substantially the whole of its funds for the sole or principal object for which it has been established;
- e) no member may directly or indirectly have any personal or private interest in that entity;
- f) substantially the whole of the activities of the entity must be directed to the furtherance of its sole or principal object and not for the specific benefit of an individual member or minority group;
- g) the entity may not have a share or other interest in any business, profession or occupation which is carried on by its members;

- h) the entity must not pay to any employee, office bearer, member or other person any remuneration, as defined in the Fourth Schedule, which is excessive, having regard to what is generally considered reasonable in the sector and in relation to the service rendered;
- i) substantially the whole of the entity's funding must be derived from its annual or other long-term members or from an appropriation by the government of the Republic in the national, provincial or local sphere;
- j) the entity must as part of its dissolution transfer its assets to—
 - another entity approved by the Commissioner in terms of this section;
 - a public benefit organisation approved in terms of section 30;
 - an institution, board or body which is exempt from tax under section 10(1)(cA)(i); or

- m) the entity is not knowingly and will not knowingly become a party to, and does not knowingly and will not knowingly permit itself to be used as part of an impermissible avoidance arrangement contemplated in Part IIA of Chapter III, or a transaction, operation or scheme contemplated in section 103(5).

17 COMPETITION ACT AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Members of the Society will represent diverse interests, some of which may pose legal risks to the Society and other members.

- a) Commercial Competitors: It is recorded that some members of the Society may be commercial competitors and that the activities of the Society and its members are subject to the Competition Act. No matter may be discussed at any meeting of the Society that is likely to be in breach of this act.
- b) Conflicts of Interest: In any meeting of the Society, members who are likely to have conflicting interests in matters on the agenda are obliged to alert the chairperson at the beginning of the meeting. Chairpersons should consider recusals where appropriate. Conflicts of interests in a Society context may include not only personal interests but also be third party interests that a member may represent.
