

Ventilation through the Ages Symposium 2015

International Ventilation through the Ages Symposium
20 - 22 February 2015
The Wanderers Club, Johannesburg, South Africa

Pre-Congress Courses: Beyond Basic Mechanical Ventilation
& Beyond Basic Nephrology • 18 - 19 February 2015
Booking essential: Limited participants per course

An international symposium focusing on ventilatory support of patients.

Who should attend?

- Intensivists
- Intensive Care Nurses
- Anaesthesiologists
- Physicians
- Paediatricians and Neonatologists
- Registrars, Medical Officers and Students
- Clinical Technologists
- Medical & Pharmaceutical Partners

Programme Highlights

- When Conventional Ventilation Fails - an evidence based approach
- Status Asthmaticus and ECMO
- Antibiotic Selection for Severe Pneumonia
- The Difficult to Wean Patient
- A Critique of the Berlin Classification for ARDS
- Ventilator Induced Diaphragmatic Dysfunction
- Ethics Programme: Ventilating the Brain Dead Patient

International Speakers

- Dr Mike Gentile (USA)
- Dr John Davies (USA)
- Ms Donna Hamel (USA)
- Dr Anthony Holley (Australia)
- Professor Louise Giles (Canada)
- Dr Francesca Rubulotta (UK)
- Dr Hilary Klorin (UK)

Online Registration at www.criticalcare.org.za

Europa Organisation Africa Tel No: +27 (0)11 325 0020/22/23

Enquiries & assistance: www.eoafrika.co.za or email mandy@eoafrika.co.za

More information about this event...