

Healthy Conversation and Making Every Contact Count

Dietitians do Prevention by listening to our patients and identifying a possible need for referral to other Health Care Professionals. Dietitians do Prevention by looking holistically to all factors affecting overall health (not only nutrition) and refer where necessary to improve the overall health of our patients.

